DREAMTIME KULLILLA-ART

OWNER – MICHAEL CONNOLLY

Dreamtime Kullilla-Art's clients is everyone who has an interest and appreciation of Australian Aboriginal culture.

Our business offers good service and a great range of Aboriginal Art & Craft and Native Bush Tucker Products.

Michael is an Aboriginal from Charleville, south west Queensland and a descendant of the Kullilla tribe from the Thargomindah/Eulo region [on his father's side] and from the Muruwari People from Goodooga/Brewarrina region of north-west New South Wales [on his mother's side] who can trace their traditional trade and diplomatic links with Central Desert as well as South Australian and Northern New South Wales' Aboriginal Communities.

Together with this rich indigenous background and unique style of interpretation of his cultural heritage, Michael is able to represent a unique perspective in the visual and performing arts.

This is evident in his artwork, craftsmanship, didgeridoo playing and storytelling as a result of blending his own contemporary or urban indigenous style with the traditional style of the Kullilla Peoples under his business name of Dreamtime Kullilla-Art.

In his own words, Michael believes customers seek him out simply because "he is good, very reliable and totally professional".

Dreamtime Kullilla-Arts customers remain loyal, satisfied and inherit a passionate commitment to Australia's Aboriginal culture.
